Judging Criteria
+ @UWAppDev's Analysis

- Technical accomplishment in the submitted Swift playground;

  - Complete, nice looking, uses latest Apple technologies

- Creativity of ideas in the submitted Swift playground; and

  - Original, something unique to you. Interactive and easy to understand

- Content of written responses to the questions in the submission form.

  - Similar to college essays in terms of importance and guideline

  - Syntax and grammar mistakes are okay, but should be understandable

What You Should NOT Do
Disqualifications

- Do _NOT_ submit multiple applications with different Apple IDs

- Do _NOT_ submit someone else's work and claim it is yours

- Do _NOT_ use sign in, tracking/analytics, or network requests

- Do _NOT_ submit the same Playground without modification

- Do _NOT_ submit without testing the Playground works as intended

  - DO ask your friends and others to give it a try

- Do _NOT_ plan to submit last minute on the deadline